

FURTHER ORDERED that the examination shall be conducted pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §§ 4241 and 4244. The purpose of the former examination is to determine whether the Defendant is suffering from a mental disease or defect rendering him mentally incompetent for purposes of sentencing; that is, the extent to which he is unable to understand the nature and consequences of sentencing or to assist properly in his sentencing. The purpose of the latter examination is to determine whether the Defendant is suffering from a mental disease or defect as a result of which he is in need of custody for care or treatment in a suitable facility, and to receive a recommendation from the examiner as to how the mental condition of the Defendant should affect the Court's sentencing decision.

All other provisions of the Order remain in effect.

SO ORDERED.
